MISSION LINEN & UNIFORM SERVICE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mission Linen Supply selected as linen, facility service provider by Antelope Valley Hospital

SANTA BARBARA, CA — October 28, 2013 — Mission Linen Supply, a leader in textile services, including rental programs and direct purchase apparel programs, announced today that it has been awarded a contract by Antelope Valley Hospital, located in Lancaster, California. Under the agreement Mission will provide patient linens, staff uniforms, floor care, surgical scrubs and much more to the hospital, the out patient surgery facility and the Women's Infant Pavilion (WIP).

Founded in 1955, Antelope Valley Hospital is an acute care facility that provides top-quality health care and services to the community. The 420-bed hospital is a nonprofit organization.

"At Antelope Valley Hospital, our goal — and the key to our success — is the provision of excellent health care to our patients and the community. In selecting our uniform and linen partner, we looked for an organization that could help us accomplish this, and we believe Mission is a great fit," said Ruben Villanueva, director of environmental services/linen transport, Antelope Valley Hospital.

"Mission Linen Supply is excited to enter this partnership and support Antelope Valley. Our wide range of products and services, inventory management capabilities and multiple operating locations will enable us to deliver the best possible service to the hospital and clinics. Our complete textile solution is a perfect approach to help the hospital system maintain its high standards of care for the community," said John Ross, president and chief executive officer, Mission Linen Supply.

Mission will service this account primarily from its Lancaster, California, location.
